

May the Scent of the Oils Bring You a New World

September/October, 2005

Dear Friends,

I am sending this newsletter to anyone who is interested in building their business. If there is any way I can help, please contact me at (269) 673-4849, or email me at: mhardy@allegan.net. I feel that Young Living has the best products available in any MLM program. This newsletter's article is "Using Young Living Oils to Heal the Physical and Mental Scars of Hurricane Katrina." There was much death and destruction in the area, and using the oils can help humanity attain a higher level of consciousness when used properly. This article focuses on using the essential oil kits developed by Gary Young to achieve higher consciousness.

To prove the importance of these kits, Gary Young has offered himself as a test subject. On August 9th, at 7 a.m., Gary fell 35 feet from a large pine tree. With this fall, he literally broke his back by crushing the second lumbar disk. He was up in the mountains so he could not be air lifted out. By using Raindrop Therapy, and the proper use of all these kits, he was able to ride out in 2 days. At the present time, denying all help from the hospital, the story he tells is that Young Living products and much prayer healed his back.

Beginning in April, 2005, Young Living launched its New Marketing Program. On March 17, I attended a leadership meeting to learn about the new program. To earn an override, one should develop two legs of $5000.00 each. I would be happy to help you move people that have not ordered in the last six months. To make big money in Young Living, you need to earn these overrides.

The purpose of the new program is so that it can be more easily explained, and to help beginners make more money. If you desire a further understanding of this new marketing program, please look on Young Living's website (www.youngliving.com) under Virtual Office, or, contact me, and I will send you three sheets of explanation and go over it with you on the telephone. This plan is not so different than the old plan, however, it has some tremendous bonuses for the beginners. The first bonus is the preferred customer bonus. Young Living is launching this marketing program on three products: 1. The Essential Oil Kits: - Thieves Kit 1 and 2, the Golden Touch 1 Kit, and The Essential 7 Kit; 2. Berry Young Juice, and 3. the ART skin care Kit. All these are very easy to sell. If you enroll 6 personally sponsored preferred customers (a preferred customer is a customer who enrolls in a monthly $50 autoship order), you will qualify for this $100 bonus, plus you will be paid on the PV from their orders. The second bonus is the Distributor TEAM Performance Bonus, which is designed to correctly build your business so that you can advance into the Star to Crown Diamond Program. Here is where you make your money.

The first product that we wish to promote is the Essential Oil Kits (Thieves, Golden Touch and Essential 7). By using the power of the oils, we can reestablish the proper spin within the blood so that we can become the Christed beings that God intended. We as distributors must understand this knowledge. Aromatherapy is the only way to reestablish the proper frequency within the blood.

The second product we want to promote was introduced at October's conference. The Art and Science of Skin Care, a superior concept in skin restoration. Young Living's A.R.T., (Age Refining Technology) combines DNA recovery enzymes - an advanced technology - with a proprietary Anti-Aging Peptide Complex to reduce the look of fine lines and wrinkles, diminish age spots, even-out skin tone, and increase the elasticity and density of your skin. Test subjects for this new product have been accused of having face lifts! This product was tested on nine women before the convention. Before and after pictures were shown, proving the benefits of this product. This new product has the potential to take your business to unlimited success. Not only will it reduce the wrinkles, the product will help clean the liver and restore the collagen within the body.

The third product is the Berry Young Juice. Many companies, like Noni, etc., have built their businesses on selling juice. I personally believe that we have the best juice on the market.

It is time that our distributors benefit by introducing new clients to the magic of the oils by first introducing them to these 3 marvelous products.

Using Young Living Oils to Heal the Physical and Mental Scars of Hurricane Katrina

Rev. Mary Hardy, Ph.D.

Katrina was a source of much pain and destruction. It will take a long time to recover from this crisis. Young Living has the potential to protect humanity from the disease propagated by this hurricane. It also has the ability to remove the emotional scars of this destruction. This hurricane may have the ability to create a major shift for humanity and give us the opportunity to transform our energy into a higher frequency so that we can consciously enter our higher bodies. For years Moses, Mary Magdalene, and Jesus understood the importance of raising the frequency within the light bodies so that they could move into a higher frequency. Now, facing the destruction of Katrina, it is important that we as Young Living distributors, know how to use the oils to prepare ourselves for this great opportunity. The opportunities will continue to increase as more people activate their higher consciousness (the hundredth monkey effect).

Gary Young has created several essential oils kits such as the Feelings Kit, 7th Heaven, The Essential Seven, Golden Touch I and II, Thieves I and II, and Raindrop Therapy. All of these kits are important if you wish to correct the scars of Katrina. The first kit you should have on hand is a Thieves I or II kit. With the disease from dead carcasses and sewage in the water supply, it is necessary to use these kits to purify the area that you are living in. The thieves spray can be sprayed in the mouth and on the body to protect you from this bacterial invasion.

In my previous newsletters, I have tried to help you understand the importance of the amygdala gland and the use of the oils to clear the emotional bodies. Now it is of great importance that you begin to utilize this information. It is very important that one gets the cerebral spinal fluid moving so that the light bodies can be cleared. The best way to do this is to pulse the oil into the energy field of the body and requires two people. One person rubs the oils on the feet of the other while that person relaxes and visualizes a desired reality. Do this by placing the right hand on the right foot and the left hand on the left foot, and holding the feet until you get an even pulse. Aromatherapy means smelling the oils and activating the amygdala gland. Intent is 95% of what happens. Entering the amygdala gland can clear the emotional and physical bodies of all pain and with the proper intent, bring joy into existing reality. By doing this we can lessen the degrees of a high temperature or pain and increase our cellular function.

The oils themselves contain the chemical constituents, which activate the peptides and the receptors. Unfortunately, science is stuck in the mold of not understanding how the energy works in the body. Candace Pert has revolutionized the understanding of how the chemicals communicate in the body with her discovery of peptides and receptors. In the proper use of the oils, we have a beautiful tool to clear the body so that the emotional bodies can be balanced. Unfortunately, modern day science has not caught up to what we have been taught by Gary Young, and the use of the oil kits. It is not necessary to completely understand the science behind it. I have been to several international meetings. The chemists at these meetings never mention the amygdala gland, or the way Candace Pert explains how the cells communicate with each other.

By simply using the different kits that we have at our disposal, we can balance the emotional bodies, which in turn balance the physical body and can lessen the power of pain and disease within the human. The first technique is simply learning to pulse and balance the bodies by holding the feet. It is important that the person visualizes bringing the energy bodies into balance. We have not only a physical body, we also have etheric, astral, causal, emotional, and mental bodies. Many times when a person goes through a trauma, such as birth, or a car accident, they leave their energy bodies stuck in that situation. This is one of the causes for people who go into shock. By holding the feet, we can allow that person to mentally go back to their traumas and visualize them picking up their energy bodies. This is the first step we need to take to overcome the revenge of Katrina.

One example of how a person leaves their energy bodies behind is the following case: Pam, a seven year old girl, was sliding and bumped her head, which knocked her out for about a minute. The school called her mother and said that Pam was passing out, and could she please come and pick up her daughter. The mother called me and asked what she should do. I then explained to her that it was important that the mother pulse Pam's feet. Oftentimes when we have a head injury, we leave parts of our electrical field back at the accident. It was necessary for Pam to relax and use Valor to balance her energy bodies. As she relaxed, it was important for Pam to go back to the accident site and ask to pick up any energy that she left at the spot where she had hit her head. After Pam did this, she no longer passed out.

The Essential Seven kit contains lavender to stimulate the normal immune function, peppermint for the nerves, Joy to restore self esteem and Peace and Calming for relaxation. According to Candace Pert's discovery of how chemicals communicate within the body, there are far more receptors in the nerves and the immune system than in parts of the human brain. As we pulse the feet, these receptor sites can be nourished with the proper chemicals to communicate with the proper body functions. In this way the light bodies can be returned and balanced. Visualization is a large part of what goes on when we pulse the feet. It is important that a person realizes that they have the power, by proper visualization, to change the whole functioning within their physical body. The proper oils can be used to guide this visualization. The Essential 7 kit is really a first aid kit, and should be with you at all times.

The next 2 kits that one should have are Golden Touch I and II. These kits contain the oils to balance the endocrine system and to activate the receptors and the peptides, so that the physical body can be balanced. The electrical frequency within these oils oxygenate the molecular activity of the cell so that one can achieve pain relief, improve memory and gain better organ and hormone function.

The next 2 kits deal with the emotional bodies. They are the 7th Heaven and the Feelings kits. These two kits work especially with the amygdala gland. As stated in a previous article, The Amygdala, Click Your Way to Happiness, we learned from TDA Lingo's research, that the amygdala is divided into an anterior and a posterior region. The posterior part deals with stored trauma, from birth to present time. The anterior part is the gateway to the frontal lobes of the brain. It is by activating this portion of the mind that one can transcend time, space, energy, and matter with consciousness.

These two kits are very important to use during this time, because they specifically help you to recover from the emotional trauma of Katrina. The Feelings kit works basically with the posterior portion of the amygdala gland. It is designed to eliminate trauma from the emotional memory. This kit contains Valor, 3 Wise Men, Harmony, Forgiveness, Joy, Present Time, Release, Inner Child, Grounding, Hope, SARA, and White Angelica. Using the process of holding the feet and visualization, one can release the stored up emotions that are contained in the posterior portion of the amygdala and free the memory from trauma.

The 7th Heaven kit prepares the body to bring in the higher frequencies and feed the light bodies. It contains the oil blends:

Awaken, Dream Catcher, Gathering, Humility, Inspiration, Sacred Mountain, and White Angelica. Visualization is a very important part of using this kit. It is important that you visualize activating the anterior portion of the amygdala gland and entering the frontal lobes of your brain. It is in this reality that you can transcend time, space, matter, and energy with consciousness and rebuild the destruction caused by Katrina.

The RainDrop Therapy kit helps you balance the cerebral spinal fluid and remove the poisons that are held within this system. This kit contains the oils of Valor to pulse the feet with, Oregano and Thyme to balance the para-sympathetic with the sympathetic nervous function in the spinal cord and then to use the four oils of Cypress for circulation, Peppermint for nerves, Basil for muscles, and Wintergreen for bone. This process activates the peptides and receptor functions throughout the whole body and stimulates the flow of cerebral spinal fluid. The last part of this technique deals with applying heat to the spine to pull the poisons out of the cerebral spinal fluid. This kit also contains Marjoram, and Aroma Siez, to prevent cramping during this process. It also contains Ortho Ease and V-6 mixing oil. The oils of oregano and thyme, when used on the back, may cause discomfort to those with sensitive skin. It is always wise to have V-6 on hand to lessen the pain and burning action of the oregano and thyme. Ortho Ease will help the spinal column to realign itself.

To prove the importance of these kits, Gary Young has offered himself as a test subject. On August 9th, at 7 a.m., Gary fell 35 feet from a large pine tree. With this fall, he literally broke his back by crushing the second lumbar disk.

He was up in the mountains so he could not be air lifted out. By using Raindrop Therapy, and the proper use of all these kits, he was able to ride out in 2 days. At the present time, denying all help from the hospital, the story he tells is that Young Living products and much prayer healed his back.

All of these kits are important to use to heal the scars from Katrina. People will not be able to live in the area for a long time because of the bacteria from the death and destruction. Essential oils have been used for years to kill airborne bacteria. For anyone returning to such an area, it is essential to have a Thieves kit.

With the proper use of the oils, mankind can turn this situation around and start to clean up the mess of death and destruction. The oils have been used for years to develop the higher bodies. Gary Young has given us inexpensive tools to help us develop the function within the amygdala gland and the clearing of the cerebral spinal fluid so that we can activate the higher bodies. It is now time to utilize these tools.

Important note: Once the higher consciousness has been brought in, it will continue to increase until humanity has achieved higher consciousness. So the oils should be continually used for advancement. The death and destruction caused by Katrina has given humanity the opportunity to grow.
